Dear Counsel

Schedule B is irrelevant. It is a summary taken from the complaint and our research. All of those companies on schedule B are also on Schduke A

Thank you

Patricia

Patricia,

The Order only refers to Schedule A, not Schedule B. If you get the Order amended to include Schedule B, then eBay can comply.

Dear Judy

Thank you for your email. Schedule B listings are already included in the complaint. It was a list of infringing entities from the complaint we had located as sellers on eBay — provided for your convenience

Accordingly please take the steps directed in the Judge's order to end those listings

I may be reached at phone number 2159086810 for further explanations

Best Regards

Patricia Ray

Patricia,

This firm represents eBay Inc. and I'm writing to you about the letter along with Schedule and Schedule B that you sent to eBay along with a copy of the Preliminary Injunction Order in the above referenced action. We note that Schedule B is not part of the Court's Order.

In order for eBay to end listings or action any accounts, you can either (1) use eBay's VeRO (<https://www.ebay.com/sellercenter/ebay-for-business/verified-rights-owner-program>) and file NOCIs (Notices of Claimed Infringement) with the eBay listings you identified in Schedule B to end the listings, or (2) you can amend your filings to include the eBay listings from Schedule B so there is a Court order covering those listings.

Please let us know which option you will pursue. If you would like to discuss on a call, please let me know.
